Hello `{{STU_FNM1.STU&W}}`,

We are pleased to have received your application to study at the University of Bolton. We know that choosing your university is one of the most important decisions you make, and we believe that the University of Bolton can provide you with both an excellent academic and social experience.

Your application is currently being carefully considered. Some courses may require you to attend an interview where we provide further insight into the course - we will contact you directly if this applies to your application.

What happens next

We will regularly communicate with you via email, including notifying you when a decision has been made on your application. To ensure you don't miss any vital correspondence from us, please add the University of Bolton (bolton.ac.uk) to your safe senders list. This will make sure you have all the information you need as well as being kept up to date with your application.

If you are a full-time applicant and have applied through UCAS, please ensure that UCAS have your up-to-date details including postal address and telephone contact numbers. If you have applied directly to the university, you will need to ensure we have your most up-to-date details and notify us of any changes by e-mail to admissions-team@bolton.ac.uk.

Don't forget

The University of Bolton offers a comprehensive range of undergraduate scholarships and bursaries and postgraduate scholarships. Should you have any questions about your course, the university, or your application please contact us by emailing the admissions-team@bolton.ac.uk. To keep up to date with university news and important applicant updates please follow @AspireBolton on Twitter or @UoB.aspire.bolton on Facebook.

We take great pride at the University of Bolton in providing a positive teaching experience, this is what has made us No.1 in the Greater Manchester area for student satisfaction*.

Dear {{STU_FNM1.STU&W}},

Congratulations! I am delighted to make you an Unconditional offer to study {{MCR_TITL.MCR}} at Backstage Academy and validated by the University of Bolton.

{{SEL:(CAP_AABS.CAP = '2')}:

You may be wondering why we have made you an unconditional offer even though you may not have completed your studies yet. This is because we have assessed your application and we are confident that, once you have completed your current studies, you will go on to succeed on this course.

Not all applicants receive an unconditional offer so this offer demonstrates our commitment to you and your future success with us here at Bolton. It is, however, important that you complete your current studies as these will be considered in the future by employers.

}}{{SEL:(CAP_AABS.CAP = '4'):

You may be wondering why we have made you an unconditional offer even though you may not have completed your studies yet. This is because after consideration of your application and your performance in any additional assessment you may have been asked to take part in, the course tutor has used academic discretion to recommend an unconditional offer on their programme.

Not all applicants receive an unconditional offer so this offer demonstrates our commitment to you and your future success with us here at Bolton. It is, however, important that you complete your current studies as these will be considered in the future by employers.
